CLERK U.S. DISTRICT COURT

COMPLAINT- CLASS ACTION

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel and pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 come MP Vista, Inc., Habib Petroleum, Warren's Shell, Inc., Individually And On Behalf Of Those Similarly Situated, all of which ARE Florida corporations who individually and on behalf of those similarly situated represent as follows:

I.--INTRODUCTION

THE plaintiffs are retail channel partners of the defendants who were directed to close their fuel pumps on May 26, 2004 after Motiva discovered the gasoline it refined at its Norco Refinery in Louisiana and distributed in Florida, Mississippi, and Louisiana was contaminated with trace amounts of elemental sulfur.

II.--DEFENDANTS

Defendants here, Motiva Enterprises, LLC and Shell Oil Company, are a limited liability company and a business corporation, respectively, both of which are domiciled at 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

III.--JURISDICTION

This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act (CAFA) 28 USC 1332(d)(2) because this is a class action in which there is at least minimal diversity and the matter in controversy exceeds the sum of Five Million Dollars($5,000,000.00) exclusive of interest and costs.

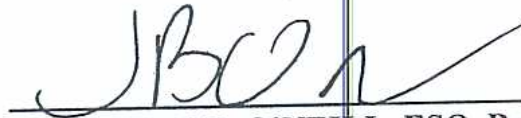

unduly burdensome on individual class members, defendants, and the court system. Additionally, because of the disparity of resources available to individual class members, prosecution of separate actions would work a financial hardship on many class members. Finally, a class certification is appropriate because the prosecution of separate actions by individual members of the class would create a risk of adjudications with respect to individual members of the class that would be as practical matter be dispositive of the interests of the other members not parties to the adjudications, and would substantially impair their ability to protect their interests.

XVII.

The plaintiffs pray for a trial by jury.

WHEREFORE, the plaintiffs, MP Vista, Inc., Habib Petroleum, Warren's Shell, Inc. Individually And On Behalf Of Those Similarly Situated, pray for Judgment against the defendants, Motiva Enterprises, LLC and Shell Oil Company, together with costs and attorney fees.

Respectfully submitted,
